- ☐ Video surveillance in the workplace/campsite.
- ☐ (other) _____

The personal data is as follows (e.g. name, address, email and telephone number).

I have been informed

- that I can always withdraw my consent and have the information deleted,
- that there are no negative consequences related to not providing my consent,
- that consent is not a condition for the delivery of an article/service,
- that before/simultaneously with the provision I have read the business' duty of disclosure,

- that I must have my parents' consent if I am under the age of 13,
- that this consent is stored by the business so it can document the consent,
- that the business regularly follows up on whether the consent is still current and correct and if the purpose of the processing or the processing itself has not changed.
- that the data is processed in a way that ensures adequate security for my personal data.
- that I am always entitled to request access to and rectification of the data - and the right to receive answers to my communication within one month, and
- that I can complain to the Danish Data Protection Agency, see www.datatilsynet.dk.
